The Shaw Historical Library

Journal of the Shaw Historical Library, 1986-2007
Issue Contents

Volume 1 Number 1 (out of print)
- The Shaw Historical Library
- The Applegate Trail, 1846 to 1853
- Kit Carson of the West
- Settling of the Southern Klamath County by the Czech Colonization Club

Volume 1 Number 2 ($10.00)
- Incident of the Modoc War
- Fifty Years on the Klamath
- Overland Journal – 1850
- The Shaw Historical Library

Volume 2 Number 1 ($10.00)
- Japanese-American Internment at Tule Lake – 1942 to 1946
- Quiet Catastrophe: Social and Cultural Aspects of Harney County (Oregon)
  Flooding
- From the Landrum Collection

Volume 2 Number 2 ($10.00)
- Thanks Dr. Daily
- The 1886 Travel Journey of a Surprise Valley Rancher
- Reclamation – A New Look for the Tule Lake and Klamath Basins

Volume 3 Number 1 (out of print)
- Modoc War Symposium: A Native View
- The Modoc War – A Mirror to the Future
- The Fields of Battle
- Past to Future, a Critical View
- Panel Discussions of the Modoc War by Military Historians
- Conflict without Counterpart, the “Inevitable” Modoc War
- Addenda

Volume 3 Number 2 ($10.00)
- Fort Klamath and “The Bread Riot”: A Near Tragedy of Early Days
- Railroads and Politics, 1890-1931
- The Lake That TimeForgot
- The Disposition of the Public Domain in Oregon
Volume 4 Number 1 ($10.00)
- Winter in Oregon – From Fremont to the Modoc War
  - DEC – 1843
  - Trail
  - Winter Campaign
- Northern Great Basin
- Oregon Branch of the Pacific Railroad

Volume 4 Number 2 ($10.00)
- The Short, Happy History of the State of Jefferson
- The Modoc War
- Homesteads and Broken Hearts – Twentieth Century Pioneering in the Fort Rock Valley
- The Forgotten Road: Notes on the 1852 Free Emigrant Road through Northern Klamath County, Oregon.

Volume 5 Numbers 1 & 2 ($15.00)
- Two Jesses and the Modoc War
- The Sagebrush War: The California-Nevada Boundary Dispute on the 120th Meridian

Volume 6 ($15.00)
- Mules in the Land of Lakes
- Oliver Cromwell Applegate – Paternalistic Friend of the Indians
- White-Paiute Conflicts – 1825-1868

Volume 7 ($15.00)
- Klamath Commandos
- Anatomy of a Massacre: Bloody Point, 1852
- Bloody Point Archaeological Investigation
- The Oregon Eastern Railway

Volume 8 ($15.00)
- Through a Strange Country Covered with Lakes
- Imagemakers of the Modoc War: Louis Heller and Eadweard Muybridge
- A Soldier’s Reminiscences: The Journal of Greenleaf A. Goodale

Volume 9 ($15.00)
- From the Sketchbook of First Sergeant Michael McCarthy, Troop H, 1st U.S. Cavalry, Excerpts, 1873
- Reminiscence of Abraham Henry Garrison – Over the Oregon Trail in 1846
- Frontier Patrol: The Army and the Indians in Northeastern California, 1861

Volume 10 ($15.00)
- The Applegate Trail, Part I
- The Applegate Trail, Part II – West of the Cascades
Volume 11 ($15.00)
• Oregon Institute of Technology 50th Anniversary Issue, 1947-1997

Volume 12 ($15.00)
A Passion for Mountains: The Journals of Edward Stuhl
• First Visit to Mount Shasta
• Second Ascent of Mount Shasta
• Crater Lake
• Medicine Lake Volcanoes
• Mount Shasta: South and West Slopes
• Mount McLoughlin
• Mount Thielsen

Volume 13 ($15.00)
A River Never the Same: A History of Water in the Klamath Basin
• Water Resources of the Klamath Basin
• The Klamath Tribes – A Photo Essay
• Construction History of the Klamath Project
• Geothermal Groundwater Characteristics & Use
• Contemporary Use of Water Resources of the Klamath Basin
• Klamath Basin Geology Related to Water Resources
• Notes on Early Water Use in the Klamath Basin
• History of the Lower Klamath National Wildlife Refuge
• The Klamath Basin Compact

Volume 14
The Devil’s Homestead: Celebrating 75 Years of the Lava Beds National Monument (out of print)
• A Modoc Letter
• Modoc Memories
• Zane Grey's Forlorn River
• The Discovery of Valentine Cave
• Meeting the Sun: Chapter XXVI – The Modoc War
• Charles Jarvis Caldwell
• J.D. Howard – The Man behind the Monument
• Edward Weston and the Lava Beds
Volume 15 ($15.00)
The Mountain with a Hole in the Top: Reflections on Crater Lake
- Llao
- The Mountain with a Hole in the Top
- Crater Lake (Lao’s Daughter)
- Interview with Luther Cressman
- William Gladstone Steel – Description of 1886 Visit
- Crater Lake and How to See It – Tourism in the late 19th Century
- A National Park for Oregon – The Crater Lake Reservation, 1886-1902
- Peter Britt and Fred Kiser: Pioneer Photographers and the Promotion of Crater Lake
- A Trip to Crater Lake on Skis
- Crater Lake in Winter
- An Historical Passage
- First Night on Wizard Island
- A Fish Story
- Crater Lake from Tales of Freshwater Fishing
- Marooned In Crater Lake
- Journey to the Bottom of the Lake – Results & Personal Observations from Studies Conducted by Submarine in Crater Lake, 1988-1989
- William DeYoung Field
- Swimming in Crater Lake
- Reflections

Volume 16 ($15.00)
And Then We Logged: The Timber Industry in the Klamath Basin
- Land, Lumber Companies and Mills in the Klamath Basin 1864-1950
- Logging Life East of the Cascades – A Photo Essay
- Lowell Jones
- Selling Klamath Reservation Timber 1910-1935
- Jackson Kimball
- What Might The Future Bring?
- Logging Landmarks: Gone but Not Forgotten
- Logging Resources in the Shaw Historical Library
Volume 17 ($15.00)
Service & Sacrifice: Klamath Basin Life through Two World Wars
- With the Colors from Klamath County, USA
- World War I through Alfred “Cap” Collier’s Photographs
- Pearl Harbor Veterans of the Klamath Basin
- Extracts from “Spoilage: Japanese-American Evacuation and Settlement during World War II”
- Helping A Few Good Men: The Klamath Falls Marine Barracks
- Crater Lake National Park during World War II
- A Look at the Klamath Commandos
- Mitchell Monument: A Place Remembered
- Ray Enouf Field
- Edison Chiloquin: Klamath Indian Won Honors as a World War II Warrior
- Carrol “Bud” Faircl: A Reluctant Warrior
- The Thanks of a Grateful Nation: Veterans and Homesteading on the Klamath Reclamation Project
- Experiences of and Early Homesteader
- Shaw Historical Library Resources on World Wars I & II and their Aftermaths

Volume 18 ($15.00)
Sheep Trails: Sheep Ranching in the Land of the Lakes
- The Role of Culture in the History of the Sheep Industry in the Inter-Mountain West
- Sheep Trailing Across the Black Rock Desert
- Basque and Irish Sheepherder Tree Carvings in South Central Oregon
- Sheep Wagons
- The Sheep Shearers
- Sheep Brands
- The Working Sheepdog
- George Fioc, Sheep Rancher in the Modoc War
- Closing Down the Commons: Conflict Between Sheep Grazing and Forestry in Oregon’s Cascade Range, 1865-1915
- The Central Oregon Range War, 1896-1906
- Twilight of the Open Rang: The Taylor Grazing Act and Formation of the Bonanza Grazing District
- Voices: Early Sheepmen Recount Times Past
- Sheep at DeVaul Ranch in Barnes Valley
- Life in a Sheep Camp
- Portrait of a Sheep Rancher
- Sheep Talk: A Conversation between Alfred “Cap” Collier and John D. O’Connor
- Sheep Ranching Today: A Photographic Essay
Volume 19 ($17.50)
A Question of Loyalty – Internment a Tule Lake
• Introduction
• Selected Chronology of the Japanese Experience in the U.S. with an Emphasis on World War II
• Selected Chronology of Tule Lake Relocation and Segregation Center
• Glossary of Terms
• Difficult Choices in Dangerous Times: The Yasui Family in World War II
• “The Deadly Enemies That They Are”: Local Reaction to the Tule Lake Internment Camp
• Dad’s Exit Strategy: Boulder Colorado, the Escape from Tule Lake
• A Question of Loyalty
• Legalizing Detention: Segregated Japanese Americans and the justice Department’s Renunciation Program
• Tule Lake Segregation Center: Resegregation and Pro-Japan Movement
• Renunciants: Bill Nishimura and Tad Yamakido
• Tokio Yamane: A Renunciant’s Story
• Shaw historical Library Resources on the Tule Lake Relocation and Segregation Center

Volume 20 ($17.50)
We Can Take It: The Civilian Conservation Corps in the Land of the Lakes
• Introduction
• Map of CCC Camps
• Depression-era Work Relief Programs and the CCC
• A Good Deal—Life in the CCCs
• A Lava Beds Legacy: And Examination of Life at Camp Lava Beds through Reports and Camp Newspapers
• Anatomy of a civilian Conservation Corps Camp: Scenes from Northwestern Nevada
• The Klamath Reclamation Project and the CCC: A Photographic Essay
• The Civilian Conservation Corps on the Klamath National Forest” An Archeologist’s Perspective
• Transcending the Ordinary: Discerning a CCC Legacy at Crater Lake
• Camp Sheldon: A Contemporary View
• Camp Bonanza: A Division of Grazing Camp on the Public Rangelands
• Bly Ranger Station: A Photographic Essay
• The CCC on the Klamath Reservation: An Introduction
• Camp Tule Lake’s Second Life
• CCC Landmarks: Remembering the Past
• CCC-Related Resources in the Shaw Historical Library
Volume 21 ($17.50)
Where Fortune Calls: Dreamers and Schemers in the Land of the Lakes

- Introduction
- Whitelake City, Oregon: Boom and Bust in the Klamath Basin
- Land of Opportunity: The City of Tulelake and the Townsite of Newell
- Russian Colonists in the Klamath Basin
- Lost Hardin Silver
- “Where Fortune Calls”: The Klamath Development Company and the Rise of Klamath Falls, Oregon
- The Importance of Optimism: Settlement of the Fort Rock Basin, Oregon
- The Smiths of Langell Valley, Oregon
- A Sluggish Sort of Eden: Dreams and Decline in Fort Klamath, Oregon
- Reflections on Modoc County, California Over a Century
- Biography of the Co-founder of the Settlement of Malin, Oregon
- Denio: The Town that Left Oregon
- Freeway to Fortune: Rural Subdivisions in Oregon and California
- The OVL Auction: A Land Sale that Rippled through Time
- A Select Guide to Diminished and Disappeared Towns in the Land of the Lakes
- Land of the Lakes Development Resources in the Shaw Historical Library

Volume 22 ($17.50)
Wings That Fill the Sky: America’s First Waterfowl Refuge

The wings of a million birds beat in the skies above the Lower Klamath and the Tule Lake National Wildlife Refuges. Their noise evokes the memory of Lower Klamath Refuge’s establishment as the nation’s first waterfowl refuge. This collection of articles, celebrating the 100th anniversary of the Lower Klamath refuge, examines the area’s unique and complicated history.